(Payable at the time of a funeral only)

| | |

| Adult Interment | £350 |
| Child or Infant Interment | £250 |

Prices include the provision and planting of a memorial tree (60cm whip) – on or near the grave, a tree guard and stake (full burials only). The interment of ashes takes place around existing trees.

If families wish to plant something bigger than a whip we will arrange this as part of “Tree Planting Day” in late winter and will endeavour to source the best saplings, at the best prices, each year. Cost is between £70 and £150 depending on the size and species.

Payment for this charge only to: 'House Cemetery Management'

Right of Burial

You are purchasing a ‘Right of Burial’ on your chosen plot, and have secured it whether you occupy it immediately or in 10, 20 or 60 years time.

The grave preparation and administration fees will of course rise over time and are payable when a burial takes place. However, should your plot remain unoccupied within 30 years from date of purchase, we require that you contact us and re-sign – at no extra cost, to confirm that you still wish to be buried with us. Of course if you move home you will also need to notify us.

Individuals buying a pre-purchase plot must appreciate that if their plot is not occupied for many years, that their neighbours’ trees may have developed to the extent that the canopy may have closed in. The burial can still take place but there may not be enough light for their own memorial tree to flourish. Some species like Hazel will do better in these circumstances. As would ferns and woodland flowers like Sweet Woodruff, Violets, Primrose and Foxglove.

Refunds

We appreciate that sometimes situations change. If you move far away or emigrate we will refund the original purchase price minus an administration charge, currently £100 pounds. If you change your mind, there is a 28-day cooling off period.

Rights of Burial to specific plots can be sold on the open market and transferred to a new owner. Simply inform us if you have sold or given the rights away and we can update our records. New owners must agree and sign the Terms and Conditions.
